- The program aims to highlight the artistic and social contributions of theatre artists from diverse, indigenous, or racialized communities or allophone communities working creatively in one of Canada's official languages;
- Tangibly support the professional development of theatrical writers from cultural communities;
- Reduce certain obstacles faced by these artists in the Montréal theatre community, including those related to inclusion, access to resources and services, visibility and legitimization, and funding;
- Foster dialogue between Montréal's English- and French-speaking theatre communities, as well as intercultural exchanges and greater representation from culturally diverse artists within the theatre community and on Montréal stages.

5. APPLICATION EVALUATION

Applications will be evaluated by representatives of the Conseil and its partners – PWM, and LA SERRE–arts vivants.

Projects will be evaluated based on merit, and the selection will take the projects' comparative value into consideration.

The evaluation committee will take into consideration diversity of practice, artists' experience, accessibility needs, 2SLGBTQQIPAA+, and gender parity.

5.1. WHAT ARE THE EVALUATION CRITERIA?

The evaluation committee will consider the program objectives and the following criteria:

- artistic interest of the project;
- artistic excellence and originality of previous works;
- impact on the artist's integration into the Montréal arts community;
- project feasibility;
- realism of proposal.

5.2. WHO WILL ASSESS THE PROJECT AND HOW ARE DECISIONS MADE?

5.2.1. What is the evaluation procedure?

The evaluation is a four-phase process:

1. Applications are received and checked for eligibility by the relevant staff members, overseen by their supervisors;
2. Projects are examined by an evaluation committee of peers, which makes recommendations;
3. Two finalists are selected, who are invited to present their project to the committee members;
4. The board of directors meets to make a final decision and award the grant.

5.2.2. Who else has access to my application?

If necessary for analytical purposes, the Conseil may consult with other organizations involved in the same grant applications or with outside experts.

5.2.3. Is the information on the application kept confidential?

The Conseil guarantees that personally identifiable information in its possession will remain confidential and that no confidential documents it receives will be accessible, subject to the provisions of the Act respecting the protection of personal information in the private sector (Chapter P-39.1).
